

Edward Rutgerson steps up as CEO of Netadmin Systems

Netadmin Systems, a leading provider of cutting-edge software solutions for fiber operators and service providers, today announced the appointment of Edward Rutgerson as its new Chief Executive Officer, effective November 1, 2024. Edward brings over 20+ years of industry experience, previously serving as the company's Vice President of Sales and Marketing.

"For the past decade, I've had the privilege of contributing to Netadmin's mission to empower fiber operators worldwide," said Edward Rutgerson. "I am honored to lead such a talented team as we continue to innovate and provide exceptional value to our customers."

Netadmin Systems has been at the forefront of the industry for 20 years, delivering innovative solutions that enable fiber operators and service providers to manage their networks more efficiently. The company's commitment to elevating talent from within underscores its belief in the value and potential of its employees. By investing in professional growth and development, Netadmin ensures a dedicated team committed to delivering outstanding customer experiences.

"Edward's leadership and deep understanding of our business make him the ideal person to guide Netadmin into its next chapter," said Fredrik Holmberg, outgoing CEO. "His appointment reflects our core philosophy of nurturing talent from within to drive success."

Fredrik Holmberg, who has been with Netadmin for several years, will transition to a new role as Group Leader within the Lumine Group, which includes Netadmin's sister companies. Fredrik will continue to advise Edward and the executive team in his new position.

With Edward Rutgerson now appointed as the new CEO, Netadmin is well-positioned for even greater success in the future. The company plans to expand its products and services, establish new partnerships, and maintain its commitment to providing innovative solutions. Netadmin aims to enhance digital experiences while delivering the highest quality and customer service.
